ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

The feedback reveals that the students were satisfied with the overall performance of the teachers. One area of concern is in Q.7. Syllabus is completed in time. 33.3% of the respondents are undecided, 18.75% disagree and 12.5% strongly disagree. It reveals that the teacher need to put in effort to complete the syllabus in time. Another area of concern is to Q.12. Teachers need to have more knowledge to meet the requirements of the curriculum. The students 52% strongly agreed to it indicating that the faculty need to have more knowledge. The subjective feedbacks also indicated that the students required 24 hrs. wi-fi enabled campus and that the upgradation of the library was required.

ACTION TAKEN

After the analysis and interpretation of the questionnaire, the result was placed in the staff meeting of the college. It was decided to have more faculty development programmes and more welfare measures for all the staff of the college. It was also unanimously agreed that more books need to be purchased for the library and required funds to be sanctioned from the next academic year.
